Scholarship Awards

Proceeds from the Auxiliary's last Mouse Races went to there first annual Scholarship awards contest. The winners of these awards were Adrienne Koonce she is the daughter of Wade and Jamie Koonce and plans to attend Lincoln land Community College of Nursing. The other winner was Nicole Winters her guardians are Brandy and Berry Lauterdale and she will be attending Greenville College.

Eagle of the Year

The eagle of the year award was given at our June 4th meeting. The eagle of the year award is given by the President annually and is given to a member or members of the Arie who have gone above and beyond the call of duty to help make this club so successful, and this year that award went to Jay Trojac and Bob Corrado, if you see these guys congratulate them and check out there name on the plaque on the wall in the club.

Upcoming Events

Beer Tent July 17th and 18th

We will be hosting the third annual beer tent at the party in the park on July 17th and 18th at the Edwards street parking lot across from the fire department, the band Side Show Bob will be performing at the beer tent. We will be having our regular monthly meeting at the beer tent on the 6th at 6:00 pm if you would like to help set up this year please be at the Edwards street parking lot at 6:00 pm, also if you would like to help tend bar we will be serving from noon on Friday and noon on Saturday just show up and give us a hand.

Membership Picnic

We will be having our annual membership picnic this year on Sept. 19th at picnic area three at the Litchfield Lake. The picnic will begin at noon; we have formed a picnic committee and will post the details on the picnic in a news letter at the end of July.

Mouse Races

The Woman's Auxiliary will be having there second Mouse race at the community center on Oct. 3rd, I don't have any other details on this at this time but will be posting them in the July news . If you didn't make it out for the first Mouse Races I'm sure you herd how fun they were so pencil this one on your calendar it's for a very good cause, we had a blast last year.

Condolences

Our condolences go out to Betty Shermer who lost her husband Willard, he passed away on June 22nd. Willard and Betty are both members of the Aerie and Auxillary, Willard will be greatly missed by all of his friends at the club Please keep Betty and her family in your prayers.

Remember this is a great organization to belong to, stay involved and active we need your support to continue to be successful!!

Sincerely/President Vernon Thrasher
